Summer Social Action Internship

Machon Kaplan is an internship program for undergraduate students interested in Judaism and social justice. Based in Washington, D.C., it provides students with a meaningful social justice internship at a locally based social justice organization, the opportunity to engage in study related to their internships, and a community of like-minded students with whom to share their experience.

Students learn, through study and action, the relationship between Judaism and American ideals, as well as the interaction of the organized American Jewish community and the U.S. government. Machon Kaplan Fellows have interned at organizations as diverse as the NAACP, the Jewish Council on Public Affairs, and the United Nations Foundation.
